

Kanemorado Jottings

Our meetings at Edmond,, Kans. closed Apr. 24 with eleven additions, eight by baptism, two by relation, and one applicant to be baptized later. This is a point which has been much neglected. Our beloved brother D. O. Brumbaugh during his life time for several years ministered to them in holy things. Was much beloved by the brethren and by the outside world. From the earnest entreaty of brother L. Bockover, we were induced to make them a visit. Reached the place on the evening of the eleventh and began services on evening of the twelfth, every evening except two until close.

The meetings were well attended considering the sparsely settled country in which they were held.

This is the home of our beloved brother Geo. Friend who united with the brethren by relation a few years ago and was chosen to the ministry by them. He is quite efficient in the ministry but owing to some misunderstandings in the church, he returned to the G. Baptist church and was chosen by them to the ministry where he has labored until the present. He has again reunited with us and resumed the regular appointments for work. Brother Hans Foss was duly chosen deacon and regularly ordained in his office.

We organized a S. School on the morning of the 24 with brother Lewis Bockover as superintendent; sister Lydia Friend, secretary; sister Rosa Bockover, chorister; and Fred Nelson, treasurer. The Brethren's quarterlies were adopted. Money collected for the same and supplies ordered.

We also organized a King's Children Society with sister Marie Perkins as president; sister Rosa Bockover as vice-president; sister Lottie Attebury as secretary; and sister Josie Attebury as treasurer. Supplies were also ordered for K. C. and the complete organization will be effected on May 1.

The spiritual condition of the church at this place is much improved.

Their number is doubled and the future of the Edmond church we feel is assured. Brethren will please remember this little vine in their prayers and when possible our ministers in adjoining will please give them a call and minister to them.

From experience among them we assure hospitable treatment and Christian kindness. From here we go to the Maple Grove Colony to hold a meeting for a few days and then return home for a little rest.

Respectfully,

A. J. HIXSON.

My First Pastorate

We accepted the work at Ankneytown and North Liberty, O., on Feb 23, 1896. During this time we have spent many happy hours together praising and worshipping our blessed Redeemer. We worshipped with them in the sanctuary, in the home at their family altar, and at the bedside of afflicted ones. Our hearts have been knit together in the bonds of Christian unity and love, which we hope shall not be broken, neither in this world, nor the world to come. As we look back over life and see the mistakes we have made, the opportunities lost, so do we see where improvements might have been made in our work, but by these we hope to profit in the future. We have learned during this time that even in the preaching of the Gospel there will come hours of severe trial and discouragements, but on the whole they were years happily spent. We are glad, then, in over the work to our worthy brother J. L. Kimmel, to hand it over, as we believe, in a state of mutual peace, with brighter prospects than when we took up the work. Above all do we rejoice that they have one to feed the flock, and one that will feed them on the pure, unadulterated food of the word of God, which, if they will receive, will be able to further them onward in the cause which they have espoused.

May the churches hold up his hands as Aaron and Hur held up the hands of Moses during the battle with Amalek, and victory will surely be theirs. During our labors here God has added 25 to the fold, mostly young men and women.

May those who are older in years, and older in His service be examples to them, and in conclusion let me exhort you, dear young converts, let Jesus be your example, imitate his life, put your trust in him, and he will keep you from falling and present you blameless in that day. While I am not your pastor, my heart goes out to you as it did while I was with you. I have tried to feed you on the spiritual food gleaned from the Word of God. I plead with you in tears, I have bowed with you at your family altars, I have been one in your home, surrounded your table and partook of the bounties of earth, and now may you continue to grow in grace and in the knowledge of the truth "as new born babes in Christ (yet not new) desire the sincere milk of the word that ye may grow thereby." To accomplish this at least three things are essential. 1. Food. 2. Desire for it. 3. Be able to assimilate the nutriment of it. The first, I am sure your
